MicroNeedling

CIT

(CIT), Collagen Induction Therapy is a minimally invasive skin-rejuvenation procedure that involves the use of a device that contains fine needles. The needles are used to puncture the skin to create a controlled skin injury. Each puncture creates a channel that triggers the body to fill these channels with collagen and a combination of other skin nutrients such as Native Hylauronic Acid and Copper Peptides.

This is NOT Scar Revision and I will NOT perform the treatment "deeper" into the skin on request.

O2 Jet Plasma

Unlike “Plasma Fibroblast”, or Spot Plasma which leaves small brown dots on the skin, the Jet Plasma pen is a handheld plasma device.

This extremely powerful device penetrates 13,000 volts of plasma through the epidermis, into the dermal and subcutaneous layers of the skin, stimulating high levels of collagen production and remodeling the cellular structure from the inside out. When Jet Plasma is mixed with oxide oxygen, ozone is created which kills surface bacteria and is anti-inflammatory.

This aids in calming keratosis, eczema and rosacea.

O2 Jet Plasma is used to tighten the skin, diminish wrinkles, diminish hyperpigmentation, treat acne, scarring, stretch marks, and improves product absorption that otherwise couldn’t penetrate to the deepest layers.

This treatment is eligible for HSA/FSA Account holders

I accept “Cherry” payments for this service as well

AwaPuhi

For centuries the ancient, Polynesians have used Awapuhi in its medicinal plant form. This plant has been cemented into the skincare and haircare industry as a staple for moisturizing. Because of ginger's tissue-repairing properties, the Hawaiian Awapuhi benefits also apply to our skin. If it can make our hair look lustrous, it'll do the same to our skin.

The "Awapuhi" Back treatment infuses Hydro-exfoliation, Treatment Enzymes and a light moisturizing treatment mask. A favorite to many clients and reminiscent of my visits to the beautiful islands of Hawaii, this treatment assists with polishing skin on the upper back and shoulders, perfect for brides, swimsuit season and special occasions.
